

STORIES FROM CAMP

"I came to camp because my mom's in prison and I want to be with other kids who are in the same situation so I'm not alone."
A camper

A camper on the last night of camp told a counselor, “when my mom gets out of prison, I will be 35 years old.”

A camper

"The first time I visited my father in prison, we had to talk through a screen. I couldn't touch him or hug him."

A camper

"This is the first time in two years that I have felt safe."

8 Year old camper

"Thank you for all the books I get to take home."

A camper

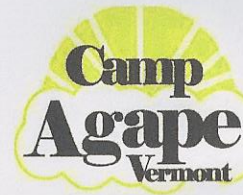

"I can't believe this. When I heard about Camp Agape and what agape meant, I didn't believe that someone could love me without even knowing me. Then I came here and it's true!"

A camper

"The camp is well named. Agape is all we have going for us and it is enough."

A returning counselor

"The soul is healed by being with children."
Fyodor Dostoevsky

2015 VOLUNTEER BROCHURE

Did You Know?

- Children of incarcerated parents again and again speak of their overwhelming sense of isolation, shame, guilt, grief and loss.
- There are over 4,000 Vermont children with one or both parents in prison or somewhere in the Corrections system.
- 50% of all children with incarcerated mothers are cared for by grandparents; nearly two-thirds of children being raised by single grandmothers live in poverty.
- Nearly 75% of those admitted to state prison have been convicted of non-violent crimes.
- More than 60% of parents in prison are held more than 100 miles from home.

“Mass incarceration is the greatest threat to child welfare in the United States.”

... Comment from the international organization that awards The World's Children's Prize for the Rights of the Child

About Camp Agape Vermont

Our history: Camp Agape Vermont started in 2006 at beautiful Covenant Hills Christian Camp in Cabot. Our first year we had 28 children come to Camp Agape, and since then have provided over 350 weeks of camping experience for Vermont children. More than 100 people have volunteered their time and services since 2006.

Our purpose is to provide a free week of Christian camping for children who have a parent/caregiver in prison or under the supervision of the Vermont correctional system.

Our guiding principle is to offer the children agape, a Greek word which means the kind of love God has for us; freely given, generous, unconditional, no-strings-attached love. We also offer campers an opportunity to share their experiences and feelings about having a parent/caregiver in prison.

Camp Agape offers an alternative to the trauma, grief, and loss children experience when a parent/caregiver is incarcerated. We seek to break the cycle of 'generational incarceration' which traps so many children of prisoners.

One counselor put it this way: “In that week at camp, I really felt like I was experiencing the Kingdom of God!”

You Can Help Transform Lives!

PRAY for prisoners, their children, camp counselors and staff.

DONATE SCHOLARSHIPS: It costs $500 to provide a child a week at camp, $100 for a day.

DONATE GIFTS: Campers receive free backpacks, camping necessities, t-shirts, sweatshirts, hand-made quilts, books and back-to-school supplies. Church groups, service clubs and individuals can provide these items.

You can help organize a group to gather some of these gifts.

DONATE SKILLS: Over the years, many people have shared their gifts with campers: magicians, weavers, craft instructors, fishermen, musicians, storytellers and a karaoke leader.

What is your gift or skill? Share it for a day or an evening!

DONATE YOURSELF as a cabin or relief counselor or staff person. Older men and women can serve as wonderful role models and mentors. Free room and board, the joy of helping transform lives, the experience of living the Kingdom!
